Press Release

Christian Berger is new President of the Bavarian Dental Chamber

BDIZ EDI-President has been elected president of 15,000 dental clinicians in Bavaria

17 December 2014

Effective December 6, 2014, BDIZ EDI-President Christian Berger, oral surgeon running a private practice in the city of Kempten, has been elected President of the Bavarian Dental Chamber. During Mr. Berger’s term, strategy for the European Association of Dental Implantologists (BDIZ EDI) and the Bavarian Dental Chamber is to utilize combined synergies in their collaboration to acting as a task force responding to political developments in Europe.

In early December, at the inaugural meeting of the new dental parliament in Munich, Christian Berger has been elected President of the Bavarian Dental Chamber, which is the largest among all German dental chambers. Berger immediately received absolute majority of the 70 valid votes from the delegates.

Christian Berger is very experienced in working within the Bavarian Dental Chamber on a voluntary basis. Starting as the public affairs officer in 2002 he took over the position of vice president the same year until December 2014. Additionally, for almost 8 years he was responsible for the postgraduate continuing education. His aim is to prevent dental clinicians all over Europe from spreading bureaucracy.
